LATE EDITION!

Bank Salary Survey

The Statistics Department collects and compiles salary information from commercial banks annually. The Officers and Employees Salary Survey is available free of charge to any bank that participates by completing two simple forms. Though you may not be directly involved in this process, we ask that you encourage your bank's administration to consider this unique opportunity. The data collection deadline is May 2, 2008. For information on how your bank can participate, please contact Judy Jolley or Cecile Evans.

Attention All FR2910a Reporters!

It will soon be the time for all FR2910a filers to submit their data to the Federal Reserve Bank of Dallas. We would like to remind all reporters that the Federal Reserve Bank of Dallas now offers a step-by-step FR2910a reporting guide via the Internet. This tool can help you with specific line item reporting questions, as well as walk you through the process of reporting your upcoming June 30, 2008 FR2910a form. Please follow the web address listed below to utilize this new tool.
