

Developing and Financing Permanent Supportive Housing for the Homeless

Save the Date – October 16, 2013

Please join the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency, the Federal Reserve Bank – Houston Branch, the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, the United States Interagency Council on Homelessness, the City of Houston, and Funders Together to End Homelessness/Houston for a breakfast roundtable on developing and financing permanent supportive housing to end homelessness.

The roundtable will feature presentations and discussions on how investors can play a role in developing permanent supportive housing as part of the Greater Houston Plan to End Homelessness.

Bankers will learn from experts how to finance permanent supportive housing by investing in low-income housing tax credits and pre-development loan pools. CRA consideration for this type of housing will also be discussed.

Who should attend?

- Commercial real estate financiers
- Housing developers (for- and non-profit)
- Community development officers
- Bank presidents

Please plan to join us for this informative session.

Date: October 16, 2013
Time: 8:00 a.m. to 11:00 a.m. (Continental breakfast provided)
Location: Federal Reserve Bank – Houston Branch
Registration: No cost to attend – registration required

For more information, please contact Scarlett Duplechain.

This event is sponsored by the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency, the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, the Federal Reserve Bank - Houston, the United States Interagency Council on Homelessness, the City of Houston, and Funders Together to End Homelessness/Houston.

